

A Research Study on the Management of Seizures

We are looking for:

Veterans with a seizure disorder willing to participate. The aim is to improve quality of life in people with seizures.

What happens during the study?

The study consists of assessments, weekly telephone calls, or weekly one hour individual sessions, for approximately 16 weeks, based at the Providence, RI VAMC.

Participants will be compensated for their time.

For more information call:

Taylor Rickard or Dr. William Curt LaFrance
(401) 273-7100 x 3504